A Report on Awareness Program on Women Empowerment

Title of Event: awareness program on Women Empowerment

Venue: In Campus

Date: 23-02-2022

Time: 10.00 AM

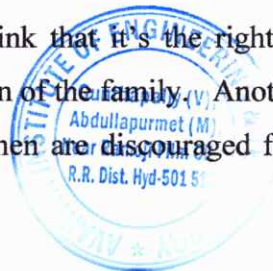

Organized by: Management

No. of participants: 80 students

Avanthi Institute of Engineering and Technology has organized an awareness program on Women Empowerment in the college campus on 10-08-21. The program began with a welcome note by the faculty in the college seminar hall.

She started her speech with the definition of the term. She said, "Women Empowerment refers to the creation of an environment for women where they can make their own decisions of their well being as well as for society". She remarked that our country needs to take some advance steps to improve the women positions through proper education and economic participation. She opined that countries all over the world called themselves, 'progressive or developing countries', but every one of them has a history of ill-treating the women. Women in these countries had to fight against the systems to get the hedonic and status that they have achieved today. However, in India, women's empowerment is still lagging. There is more awareness that needs to be created, she lamented.

The speaker narrated many real life incidents to magnify the reason for lack of women empowerment in India. She said that, India is one of the countries which is not safe for women, and there are several reasons for the same. One of the reasons for their lack of safety is the danger of honor killing. Families think that it's the right to kill the female if they have brought shame to the family and reputation of the family. Another big problem that women face is that there's a lack of education. Women are discouraged from pursuing higher education even now in many parts of the country. Along with that, they are married early. The men dominating the women think that the role of women is limited to work for them.

The speaker highlighted the need for awareness on women empowerment and also said that women must be given equal opportunities in every field, irrespective of gender. Moreover, they must also be given equal pay, she exhorted. The speaker also informed that we can empower women by abolishing child marriages and urged that various organizations must be organized wherein women must be taught skills to fend for themselves in case they face any financial crisis. The guest epitomized that attitudinal change in the society will make way for Women Empowerment.

She concluded her speech with the quote of Swami Vivekananda, "There is no chance for the welfare of the world unless the condition of the women is improved. It is not possible for a bird to fly on only one wing"

She stated the session stating that for sustainable development, inclusive growth and to establish a peaceful world, gender equality is mandatory. Because as long as some sections of the society are victims of rate, frustration, illiteracy, social backwardness, we cannot even imagine the complete development of India. Gender equality implies a society when people of all gender enjoy the same opportunities, outcomes, rights and obligations in all spheres of life. Without gender equality we cannot bring balance between natures. The speaker focused on three key areas:

- To recognize the significance of education in women empowerment
- To recognize the welfare schemes and provisions in constitution for Gender equality

She also said that during covid-19 when everything was closed, there is no relaxation for women. Their duty for domestic work continuous as 24 hours. Women's duty increased more in covid 19 time period. They have to give extra time to their children due to closures of schools, more time consumed in the family care and sanitation. But this work is undervalued and invisible. The speaker reminded about the various schemes provided by the Indian government like:

- Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Scheme
- Udaan Scheme Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana

Report on Healthy mind and Healthy body for Women

Title of Event: Program on Healthy mind and Healthy body for Women

Venue: College Seminar Hall

Date: 23-12-2021

Time: 10.00 am to 1.00 pm

No. of participants: 60 students

The institute has organized an awareness program on Healthy mind and Healthy body for women in the Seminar hall from 10 am to 1 pm on 23-12-2021. The program began with a note of welcome by the Convener Mrs.Sri laxmi in the college Seminar hall.

Mrs. Jayaprada was the resource person. "By changing our minds, we really can change our lives," asserts the behavior change expert. She briefed the audience that attitudes, feelings, and behaviors are linked with a healthy mind and body. The ancient Roman proverb 'Healthy mind in a healthy body' holds good even in today's modern world, she opined. The guest also underlined the importance of exercise and said that regular exercise increases blood circulation in our bodies and it means an increased supply of oxygen to the brains. The speaker stated that the dissatisfaction and malice in a person's mind gets reflected on his/her face whereas positive thoughts of a healthy mind bring on a glow to the person's face. As mind and body are so closely intertwined, both keep affecting each other and unless controlled can set off a cycle of reactions. For example, an unfit person is prone to depression and this often results in low self esteem. He or she then loses the will to improve and only some great motivation can change the situation. If a person can manage to free his mind of unhealthy and negative thoughts like self pity, he/she can stir up the will to improve his/her body.

The guest addressed the audience by mentioning that to have a healthy mind one must have emotional, psychological and social factors that affects how one think, feel and act. She further explored that maintaining a level of physical fitness and a balanced diet helps in both physical and mental well being. She said that in order to sustain a healthy mind in a healthy body, one must be active, have positive attitude and maintain a good diet.

She remarked, Health, be it mental or physical is the prerequisite for living a good and fruitful life. It is not wealth, food or good clothes that makes a person happy, but a buoyant health together with a strong mind. Only when a person is holistically healthy, he/she can gain the confidence to tackle any problem that comes his/her way, she said. Thus, neither the mind nor the body can be neglected. Health educators play an important role in generating awareness. They are the experts and professionals who teach individuals and communities the importance of good health and ways to achieve it. Due to a lack of knowledge and care, many people die every year. To reduce unwanted death, health education is necessary.

The speaker stated that many social factors like poverty, unemployment, lack of awareness, unavailability of facilities, and etc lead to low healthcare status. She said that everyone must constantly strive to keep both body and mind healthy with proper food, rest and exercise.

She concluded by saying that "Precaution is better than cure", therefore everyone should acquire health education to stay fit before it's too late.

All the students including the faculty present there in the program got inspired and benefitted a lot from the speech. Along with the faculty members, 60 female students have participated in the event.

Venue: College Seminar hall

Date: 08-02-2022

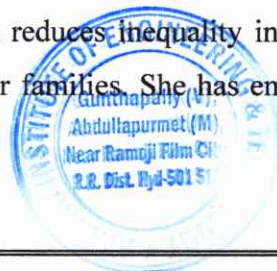

Time: 11.00 am to 1.00 pm

No. of participants: 95 students.

The institute has organized an awareness program on Women Rights in its seminar hall on 08-02-2022 from 11 am to 1 pm. They briefed the audience about the different rights the Indian Constitution is providing to women.

Mrs. Prasanna said that the government of India provides a set of rights for women which are crucial for every woman to get protected. This seminar highlights few of the essential rights of the women which are crucial for self-development and protection. Some of the rights of women include equal pay for equal work, right to dignity and decency, right against work harassment, right against domestic violence, right to get free legal aid, freedom from arrest during night, right to register virtual complaints, right against indecent representation, right against stalking, right to zero FIR. Ms. Ragini started her speech with a quote given by Hillary Clinton "Human rights are women's rights and women's rights are human rights, once and for all." and guided them to concentrate on areas which are most crucial to their well being. The speaker also spoke about the constitutional rights and legal rights. The constitutional rights are those which are enshrined within the constitutional provisions. The legal rights, on the other hand, are those which are enacted within the parliamentary legislations as well as the state legislations.

The woman rights in India can be classified into two categories, namely as constitutional rights and legal rights.

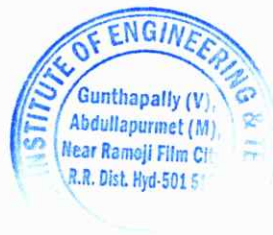

Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act (2005) is a comprehensive legislation to protect women in India from all forms of domestic violence. It also covers women who have been/are in a relationship with the abuser and are subjected to violence of any kind- physical, sexual, mental, verbal or emotional.

Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act (1986) prohibits indecent representation of women through advertisements or in publications, writings, paintings, figures or in any other manner. Commission of Sati (Prevention) Act (1987) provides for the more effective prevention of the commission of sati and its glorification on women.

Dowry Prohibition Act (1961) prohibits the giving or taking of dowry at or before or any time after the marriage from women.

Maternity Benefit Act (1961) regulates the employment of women in certain establishments for certain period before and after child-birth and provides for maternity benefit and certain other benefits.

Seminar ended with a lively interaction of lady faculty and staff with the speakers. The doubts by staff and students have been clarified by the speakers. Along with the faculty members, 95 female participated in the seminar.

Report on Gender Equality in Politics

Title of Event: Gender Equality in Politics

Venue: College Auditorium

Date: 17-03-2022

Time: 11.00 am to 1.00 pm

Guest: Dr..M.Priyanka, General Secretary, Avanthi Educational Society

No. of Participants: 48 students

The institute has organized an awareness program on Gender Equality in Politics in its auditorium on 17-03-2022. The program began with a welcome note by the faculty and students of the college. Dr..M.Priyanka was the Chief Guest of the program. Gender inequality in political empowerment is documented in every region worldwide, including those countries that are most socially and economically advanced, she remarked. Achieving gender equality in politics requires more than women and men having an equal share of parliamentary seats and ministerial positions. It requires that women and men of all backgrounds have equal access to such positions and can subsequently participate in decision making on an equal basis. Achieving this entails putting in place inclusive work environments, facilitating equal access to leadership roles and removing socio-economic barriers to political participation (e.g. through gender-mainstreamed and targeted public policies). She opined that focus must be how parliamentarians are working to attain gender equality in politics at the national level, and how parliaments can become more gender-sensitized. The speaker stated that, Gender equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world. There has been progress and a remarkable change over the last decades, but the world is not on track to achieve gender equality by 2030. She exhorted that women's representation in government "improves policy-making and increases the public's trust in the institutions where they serve".

When women are represented in government, they tend to advocate for policies that benefit women, such as maternity and paternity leave and other types of family-friendly policies. She briefed that Gender equality can only be achieved when both male and female individuals are treated similarly and enjoy the same rights and equal opportunities to grow and prosper. She concluded her speech by informing that many of them are unaware of their rights and urged everyone to know their rights.

The speaker mesmerized every one with her motivational speech Along with the faculty members, 24 female and 24 male students were present for the occasion.
